CATALOGUED AND TO BE SOLD BY . . . . . JAMES KELLY DAYTON, OHIO

OUR COVER

"WASHINGTON INSPECTS THE FIRST MINTING OF AMERICAN COINS"

The establishment of the United States Mint and of a uniform coinage system was of paramount importance to President Washington. He knew how the nation was suffering from lack of coins to facilitate everyday transactions. He knew how uncertain were prices and how unstable were wages, with confusion of English shillings, French Louisdors, and Spanish Doubloons that were circulating in the country. And he furthermore realized that the coinage of money—a sovereign privilege—would be proud and practical evidence of the independence of the new little nation.

Washington had been stressing the subject of coinage ever since his first annual message to Congress in 1790. But it was not until April of 1792 that Congress passed the act establishing a Mint.

Work proceeded quickly, thereafter. David Rittenhouse, an outstanding scientist of the day, was appointed Director of the Mint. During that summer, a building was erected in Philadelphia to house the Mint, and in September, three coin presses were received from France. By November, President Washington was able to report at the opening of Congress, that the coinage of Half Dimes (Half Dismes) had actually begun.

The Mint had originally purchased copper to make into copper Cents. But Washington evidently felt that the first coins should be more dignified than copper Cents, so he had some priceless old silver from Mt. Vernon sent to the Mint. Here the spoons and tankards were coined into beautiful Half Dimes, with a profile likeness of Martha Washington. They were never put into circulation, however. Congress, recognizing the President's deep sentiments, voted that these new coins be given to him. Washington took great pleasure in giving them to his friends here and abroad, and today, these "Washington Half Dimes" are highly prized as collectors' items.

In this painting by Henry Hintermeister, we see Washington holding up one of the coins for closer inspection, while David Rittenhouse displays a tray full to Martha Washington and Mrs. Hamilton. Alexander Hamilton, the Director of the Treasury, stands behind his wife. Tobias Lear, Washington's faithful private secretary, is seen in the background, and in the extreme right, we see Thomas Jefferson, the Secretary of State.

Mr. Hintermeister, a devoted scholar of American history, and an accurate and talented painter of the American historical scene, has given us a vivid picture of this memorable moment in American history . . . memorable because at this time was laid a secure and stable foundation for American business.

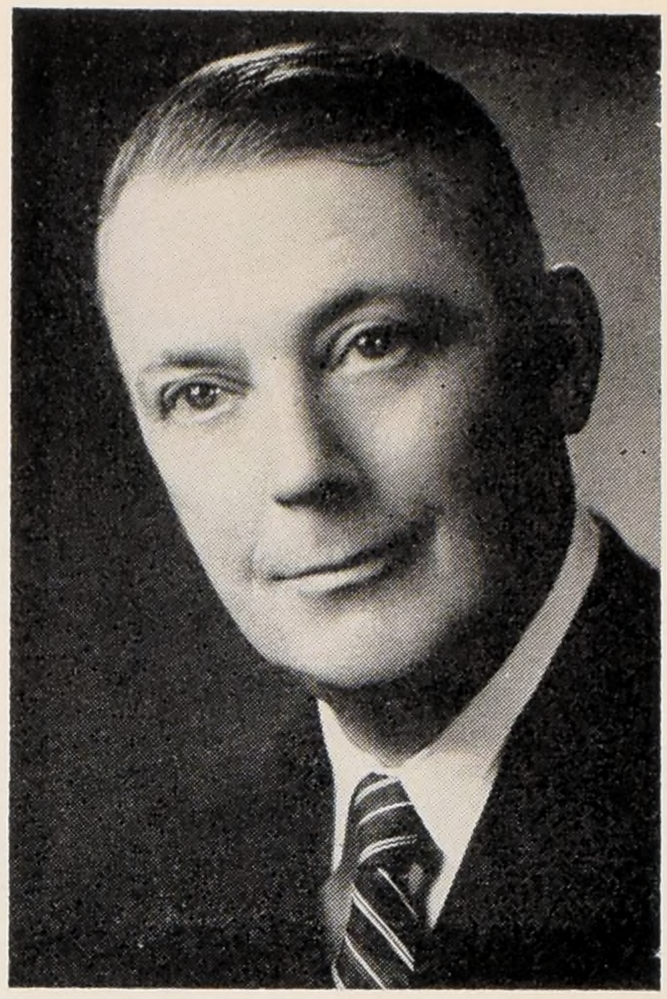
Third and Broadway Dayton 7, Ohio

WELCOME!

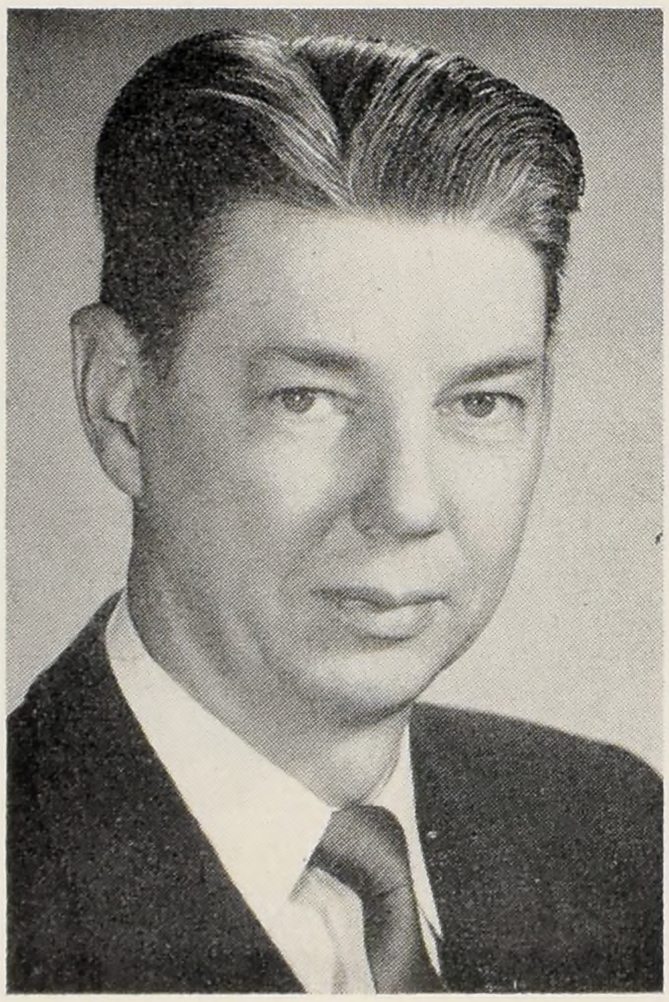


Among the pleasant duties of this office is that of extending an invitation to all members to attend the annual convention and a cordial welcome to those who do.

The Chicago Coin Club, host club, has spared no effort in arranging a program which includes all the usual features, culminating in the annual banquet on Saturday evening. There are special events for the ladies every day. It is a program of four full days of numismatic pleasure.

Whether you are a new member attending your first convention or an old timer, you are assured of a cordial welcome at this 65th Annual A. N. A. Convention.

LEONEL C. PANOSH, President
American Numismatic Assciation



For the ninth time, Chicago is the scene of an American Numismatic Association Convention. From the first modest gathering in our city in 1891, to the big CHI-ANA show of 1956, Chicago has played a key role in the remarkable growth of the world's largest numismatic organization. We are proud of our ties with the A. N. A. and equally proud of our local people who, through the years, have contributed so much to numismatics.

The Chicago Coin Club is happy that it is once more host to the national body. All of the club's members have been working enthusiastically on the 1956 convention for this last year and the results of that work and of careful but imaginative planning will be evident to all from the moment the doors swing wide until they close.

To General Chairman Glenn B. Smedley, his chairmen and all committee workers go full credit and thanks for the long hours of devoted effort they have put in to make the convention a success. With emphasis on quality rather than quantity, CHI-ANA could be the Association's best by the most exacting standards; it could also be the largest, although that is not the primary aim.

All the things that one expects from a major convention are wrapped in a huge package to be opened and spread before our guests from August 22nd to the 24th. Come and take part in the fun. We cordially invite you, and in the words of Shakespeare, bid you "a hundred thousand welcomes."

ELSTON G. BRADFIELD, President
Chicago Coin Club

FOREWORD

Conducting a successful A. N. A. Convention Sale presents a real challenge to the cataloguer.

These Sales are usually awarded to a dealer at least a year in advance of the Convention. I was officially awarded the 1956 Sale in Chicago at the Central States Meeting in April of 1955. At that time I had the confidence, the ambition, and the experience of conducting two previous A. N. A. Sales . . . and little else.

Believing that the Chicago Convention would be the largest and one of the best ever held, it was our job to secure consignments befitting such an occasion. How well we have succeeded may be judged by the material presented in this catalogue.

It is seldom that a dealer is privileged to catalogue so many outstanding rarieties in one Sale. However, a convention is made up of all types of collectors and in selecting our consignments we have tried to have something for everybody. This has only been possible through the cooperation of the better than thirty consignors whose material has made this an outstanding Sale. We wish to express our deep appreciation to these consignors and trust the results will justify their confidence.

In preparing a catalogue of this magnitude, many problems arise that require expert help and advice. Everyone contacted was most cooperative, but we particularly wish to thank Mr. Glenn Smedley, Chairman of the Convention Committee, and Mr. Lewis Reagan, Secretary of the American Numismatic Association, for their help in making the necessary arrangements for the handling of this Sale; also members of the Professional Numismatists Guild for technical and numismatic information.

I wish to express special thanks to my colleague and associate in conducting this Sale, Mr. Paul H. Wittlin, whose help and technical advice have been invaluable.

So, it is with considerable pride and humility that we present this, our third, A. N. A. Sale. It is our sincere hope that it will add to your Convention pleasure. And to those not fortunate enough to attend in person, we trust you will enjoy the catalogue and perhaps add something to your collection.

RARE UNCUT SHEETS

Legal Tender Notes

1102. 1928 $1.00, F-1384. Uncut sheet of twelve notes. Low serial numbers, 85 to 96. Signatures, Woods and Woodin. Small red seal and red serial numbers. Crisp Unc. and just as perfect as issued. In cataloguing the Wade Uncut Sheet, Mr. Bebee states "There were only four other uncut sheets issued. The first sheet, Nos. 1 to 12, were cut up and the single notes given to Government officials." This was no doubt based on information received by Mr. Wade from Mr. Woodin, Secretary of the Treasury. It is indeed a "showpiece" of the greatest rarity. The Wade specimen, which was autographed, was priced at $1,950.00. This suitably framed specimen, which is not autographed, is valued by the consignor at $1,250.00.

Five Dollar Sheet

1103. $5.00 1928D, F-1397. Signatures Julian and Vinson. Uncut sheet of twelve notes, Crisp Unc. Single notes bring $30.00 but in uncut sheets, they are far more valuable. This sheet not listed in the Wade Collection. Very rare and valued at $650.00.

U. S. SILVER DOLLARS

Uncirculated 1794 Dollar

1509. 1794 Unc. and just as sharp as the day it left the Mint. Stars on left much sharper than usual for this date. Hair, date and "Liberty" are well struck. "United" on reverse just slightly weaker struck than the balance of legend, and most of the feathers show on eagle's breast. The Neil speciman was the finest I had ever examined prior to cataloguing this coin. It is just as sharp and in my opinion becomes superior as it has none of the detracting file marks found on many of our early coins. This magnificent Dollar is valued by the consignor at $3,500.00. I consider this very conservative and the lucky buyer may have to go higher for this gem example of our first "Silver Dollar".

UNITED STATES GOLD DOLLARS

We are proud to offer the outstanding collection of Gold Dollars formed by Mr. Robert Schermerhorn of Dallas, Texas—only complete collection of Gold Dollars ever assembled. This is based on the fact that this collection contains the only known specimen of the 1849 Charlotte Mint with Open Wreath. This collection of Dollars, along with the Gold Patterns, Pioneer and California Gold, etcetera, here offered, was collected over a period of ten years. Mr. Schermerhorn traveled throughout Europe and the Orient, as well as all over the United States in assembling this collection. He not only has derived great satisfaction from it but has won many awards when his collection was displayed at conventions. We hope, and believe, it will prove to have been a good investment.

GOLD DOLLARS

1568. 1849 Open Wreath. Small head and small stars. Gem Unc. $35.00.

1569. 1849 Closed Wreath. Ext. Fine, $20.00.

Lot No.

1570. 1849 Charlotte Mint, Closed Wreath. Choice V. Fine, $60.00.

1849 C Mint Open Wreath
Only Specimen Known

1571. 1849 Charlotte Mint with Open Wreath. Extremely Fine to About Uncirculated. From the Newcomer, and later the Williams Collection, but discovered and first published by Mr. Schermerhorn. The above picture, which is double size, shows the distinctiveness of this type. Certainly no collection could be called complete without it. It is very difficult to set a valuation on this unique coin. Mr. Schermerhorn values it at $7,500.00. This seems justified when we compare it to what numerous rare coins, not unique, have brought at recent sales. This coin is mounted in a large plastic holder, approximately fifteen by ten inches, with blown up photos of the 1849 Philadelphia, Open and Closed Wreaths, and 1849 Charlotte Open and Closed Wreaths for comparison. Certainly a prized possession for some fortunate collector.

1597. 1855 D Mint. Practically Uncirculated and well struck. The entire reverse, including 8 in date, is sharp. Letters on obverse have been recut. Hair on Liberty only weak spot on this rare coin. Probably one of the finest known. Should bring well over $500.00.

1598. 1855 O Mint, a gem. If they struck Proof Gold at New Orleans, this is one. Worth $75.00 or more.

1599. 1856 S Mint. V. Fine, $32.50.

Type 3

1600. 1856 Slanting 5. Ext. Fine, $13.50.

1603. 1857 Brilliant Proof. A gem and very rare, $135.00.

1604. 1857 C Mint. Ext. Fine but was apparently struck from a rusty die. Shows little or no signs of circulation, $90.00.

1605. 1857 D Mint. Ext. Fine with mint lutsre. The reverse is weak struck as usual though all letters and figures are readable. This is better than average. $175.00.

1606. 1857 S Mint. Choice Ext. Fine. scarce in this condition, $75.00.

1607. 1858 Br. Proof gem. Should bring well over $150.00.

1608. 1858 D Mint. V. Fine, has the usual weakness in date. Also slight edge defect, $90.00.

1609. 1858 S Mint. Unc. rare in choice condition, $75.00.

1610. 1859 Br. Proof, $65.00.

1611. 1859 C Mint. Ext. Fine, reverse is slightly weak struck. Just about as fine as obtainable, $100.00.

1612. 1859 D Mint. Pract. Unc. several letters on reverse are bluntly struck which is characteristic. A choice example of this date, $150.00.

Lot No.

1613. 1859 S Mint. V. Fine, $37.50.

1614. 1860 Br. Proof. A gem, $90.00.

1615. 1860 D Mint. I classify this as Very Fine though doubt that it has seen much circulation. The "U" in United is blunt and most of the other letters recut. This indicates a defective die. Reverse is also slightly weak. This is considered by many the rarest branch mint Gold Dollar. Missing in the Melish Sale. Should bring over $400.00.

1621. 1864 Choice Ext. Fine, $60.00.

1907 SAINT - GAUDENS VERY HIGH RELIEF

ONLY SIXTEEN STRUCK

Lot No.

1773. 1907 Saint-Gaudens design with Roman Numerals, extremely high relief. Uncirculated, just as perfect as the day it was struck. Consensus of opinion is that the Saint-Gaudens designed Double Eagle is the most beautiful and artistic of the United States coinage. This very high relief is by far the most striking example of those designed by Saint-Gaudens. This is the fourth specimen I have handled since 1942 and to the best of my knowledge, the first offered at public sale in the United States. Its extreme rarity can be attested by the fact that it has been missing from practically all of the famous collections which have come on the market in recent years. The records state that sixteen were struck but far less specimens than this have been accounted for. It is valued by its owner at $7,500.00. I consider this a very conservative estimate and believe it will bring more. I can think of no other coin in the U. S. series that would afford more pride and pleasure in its ownership.

1774. 1907 St. Gaudens Roman Numerals, high relief. Unc. sceond only in beauty to the preceding lot, $200.00.

1775. 1908 S Mint, V. Fine plus. Scarce date, particularly in choice condition, $115.00.

1776. 1913 S Mint, Pract. Unc. scarce. A low mintage, catalogues $200.00 Uncirculated.

1777. 1920 Ext. Fine. Only a few slight abrasions keep this out of the Uncirculated class. Catalogues $100.

1778. 1922 Unc. Catalogues and worth $100.00.

1779. 1922 S Mint, Uncirculated. No sign of wear but a few slight abrasions from contact with other coins. A choice specimen, catalogues $300.00.

Lot No.

1780. 1923 Abt. Unc. Little or no wear, catalogues $125.

1781. 1923 D Mint, Abt. Unc. $50.00.

1782. 1924 S Mint, Uncirculated. A few microscopic abrasions are all that keep this from being called perfect. I purchased the specimen from the Menjou Sale for $2,000.00. The Pierce specimen brought $2,250.00 at the Buffalo Convention Sale. However, a few specimens turned up several years ago and they are now selling around their catalogue value of $700.00.

1783. 1924 D Mint. Abt. Unc. choice and sharp, $90.00.

1784. 1926 Unc. catalogues $90.00 and worth it.

1785. 1926 S Mint, strictly Uncirculated but has slight signs of bag handling. This at one time was as rare as any coin in the U. S. series. In recent years a few specimens have turned up. However, these have been absorbed and I predict that in the not too distant future, it will again become a very rare coin. Catalogues $1,000.00 and bringing close to this figure at private and public sale.

Lot No.

1786. 1926 D Mint. Has never been circulated but shows slight signs of bag handling. The Dr. Green specimen sold for $2,500.00 in 1949. Only a very few specimens have turned up since that time. It is catalogued at $1,000.00 and should easily bring this price or more.

1787. 1927 Choice Unc. $75.00.

1788. 1929 Uncirculated. Has a few slight abrasions which are usual on these coins due to their being handled and stored in bags. This is a very much underrated date. Catalogues only $300.00 but has been consistently bringing close to $500.00 at recent sales.

U. S. EAGLES

1789. 1797 Small eagle on reverse. Pract. Unc. with lustrous Proof surface. Has the usual die mark from last star on right to neck. Should bring well over its catalogue value of $325.00.

1790. 1798 over 97. Nine stars left, four right. Ext. Fine, a few very slight nicks keep it from the Uncirculated class. Catalogues $600.00 but has auction records over $800.00. PLATE

Lot No.

1791. 1798 over 97. Seven stars left, six stars facing. Practically Uncirculated with lustrous Proof surface. Only the lightest rubbing on obverse keeps this from the gem Uncirculated class. This is by far the rarest of the early Eagles. The Melish specimen, catalogued and sold by Mr. Kosoff at the Central States Convention Sale this past April, brought $3,150.00. This is a far superior specimen and should most certainly bring as much or more.

1792. 1801 Unc. Considerable lustre, sharp and well struck, $150.00.

1793. 1803 Unc. Mint lustre, exceptionally well struck, $175.00.

1794. 1803 Unc. Just about as nice as the preceding, $175.00.

1795. 1804 Ext. Fine. Nick on reverse and a few slight abrasions on obverse keep this from being a gem. A very desirable specimen and a date which has been underrated in value. Cost $200.00 several years ago.

1796. 1842 O Mint, V. Fine plus, $37.50.

1797. 1844 O Mint, Unc. lustrous Proof surface, $60.00.

1798. 1847 O Mint, Pract. Unc. A choice specimen, $45.00.

1799. 1851 O Mint, Fine-V. Fine, $35.00.

1800. 1879 O Mint, choice Ext. Fine. Very rare only 1500 struck. Worth double its catalogue value of $100.00.

1801. 1884 CC Mint, Ext. Fine, rare, $60.00.

1802. 1893 CC Mint, V. Fine plus, $45.00.

1803. 1909 S Mint Ext. Fine, sharp mint mark, $32.50.

U. S. HALF EAGLES

1804. 1800 Pract. Unc. Slight abrasions on obverse, $85.00.

1805. 1803 over 2, Ext. Fine. Slight adjustment marks on reverse, $75.00.

1806. 1806 Round top 6, Abt. Unc. mint lustre, $75.00.

1807. 1808 Perfect date, Pract. Unc. $85.00.

1808. 1808 About Unc. Just as nice as the preceding, $80.00.

Lot No.

1810. 1810 Large date, Abt. Unc. Slight edge defect, $60.00.

1811. 1811 Small 5, Unc. $80.00.

1812. 1812 Unc. $80.00.

1813. 1813 Different type, larger head. Abt. Unc. with mint lustre, $120.00.

1814. 1813 Ext. Fine, $90.00.

1815. 1840 Choice Ext. Fine, $25.00.

1816. 1852 Dahlonega Mint. V. Fine, $30.00.

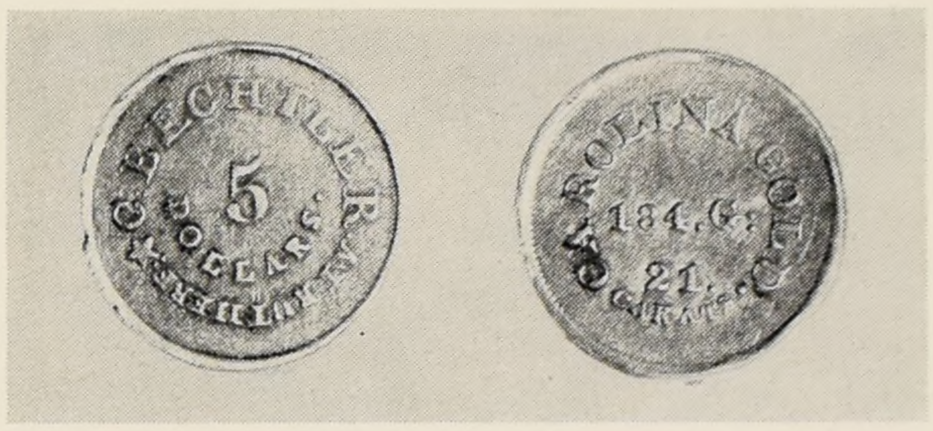
UNIQUE



CHRISTOPHER AND AUGUST BECHTLER

5 Dollar Gold (1842)

1829. C. Bechtler at Rutherford, 5 Dollars (1842). Rev: Carolina Gold, 134 Gr., 21 Carats. A transition piece, combining a die of Christopher Bechtler with a die of his son, August. Illustrated in Guidebook, 10th edition, page 195. Extremely Fine. This unique coin is the most sought after in the entire issue of the famed Bechtler family. All Bechtler coins are rare due to so many being turned into the mint for melting. Although the Charlotte Mint was opened in 1837, the Bechtlers continued their coinage until 1852 without interference by the Government. Truly a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity for some fortunate collector as no Bechtler Collection could be complete without this coin. Valued by owner at $6,500.00.

1830. C. Bechtler at Rutherford, 5 Dollars. Rev: Carolina Gold, 141 Gr., 20 Carats. About Uncirculated, Struck in copper and gold plated. This Pattern coin is another transitional piece of the Bechtlers—father and son. Very rare and difficult to estimate.

1831. A. Bechtler, 1 Dol. Rev: Carolina Gold, 27 Gr., 21 C. Pract. Unc. and very choice, $40.00.

1832. Same, a Pattern struck in brass. Ext. Fine and rare.

MOFFAT & COMPANY

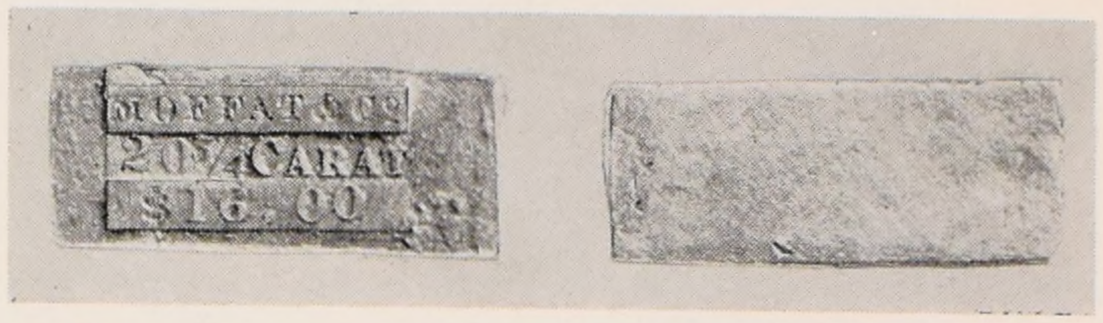
San Francisco, 1849-1853

UNIQUE

$14.25 Gold Ingot 1849

1835. Moffat & Co. 21¾ Carats, $14.25. Rev: Dwt. 15, Grs. 6. Illustrated in Guidebook, 10th edition, page 197. Very Fine and better than the plate indicates. One of the first pieces to circulate in the California Gold series. Moffat's primary concern was to make $16.00 Ingots, the equivalent of a Doubloon. The companion to this piece—the $9.43 Ingot—is now safely tucked away in the United States National Collection and forever off the numismatic market. Originally in the collection of a noted Eastern collector, and truly a museum piece. It is the only known odd denomination Moffat Ingot outside of the National Collection, and is valued at $15,000.00. Considering that a number of coins with no claim to being unique have brought near this figure, it would seem a fair valuation.

MOFFAT $16.00 INGOT



Lot No.
1836. Moffat & Co. 20¾ C. $16.00. Rev: Blank. Ext. Fine and excessively rare. Auction records around $2,000.00.

1837. Moffat & Co. $10.00, 1849 Proof. The extreme rarity of this coin is in its condition as it is seldom found better than V. Fine. It is nearly impossible to estimate the value of a coin such as this, but it is valued by its owner at $1,500.00. PLATE

1838. Moffat & Co. $5.00 1849, V. Fine.

AUGUST HUMBERT

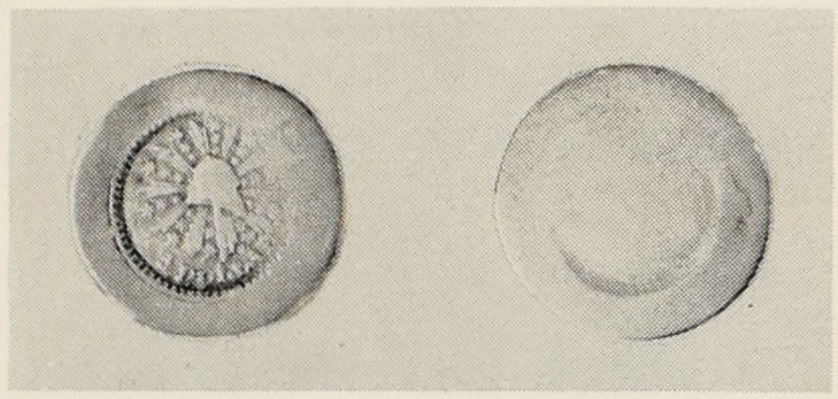
Lot No.

1843. (1849) Ten D. Miner's Bank, San Francisco. Rev: California over eagle and thirteen stars. Struck by Wright & Co. Pract. Unc. with mint lustre. These coins were not readily accepted because they were worth less than face value and alloyed with copper. This gem coin should bring close to $1,000.00. PLATE

PACIFIC COMPANY



1844. One Dollar (1849). Obv: Impression stamped on Mexican silver coin. Fine and certainly extremely rare. Costs $250.00.

1845. 1849 2½ Dollars under cap. Rev: Eagle over date, and name of company. Struck in silver and gold plated. Uncirculated and very rare. Cost $750.00.

UNIQUE

Kellogg & Hewston $49.50 Ingot

1846. No. 2425, 2.77 oz. 864½ Fine, $49.50. Rev. 2425 in antiquated figures. The four edges are lettered and stamped as follows: Lower half of U. S. Shield, UE . . . US (for U. S. Revenue); Kellogg Hewston; Upper half of U. S. Shield, VT . . . EV. Illustrated in Guidebook, 10th edition, page 212.
This splendid and highly prized piece was in the Waldo Newcomer Collection, the famed repository of Pioneer Gold coins. Originally unknown to Edgar Adams when he published his book in 1913, the piece made its debut in a 1929 Auction Sale conducted by Thomas L. Elder, the late renowned numismatist and dealer. Under Lot 975, if we are permitted to extract: "(1852-54) . . . The San Francisco Directory for 1852 states that John Hewston, Jr. was a smelter and assayer, connected with the U. S. Assay Office and the inclusion of his name on this bar gives it added importance and value, and gives it official standing. It bears a U. S. Shield on its edges and a reference to the U. S. Revenue Department, proving it circulated with other coins of the period at its face value.
It is, therefore, a Pioneer Gold coin, in the same class as the Moffat & Co. Ingots of 1849 . . . collected many years ago by an old 'Forty-Niner' named Steinhardt, who died a few years ago aged 78 years. He was an old banker and assayer and was known personally to me like Hugo Landecker of San Francisco . . . . All of the above statements and others in regard to John Hewston, Jr., whose name appears with that of coiners Kellogg & Co., can be verified and amplified. The records show that Hewston officiated between 1852 and 1854, and we all know Kellogg struck much gold in 1854."
In addition to the above testament by Mr. Elder, we also note mention in the San Francisco Directories of Kellogg & Humbert as Assayers in 1859 (their last year), and Kellogg, Hewston & Co. in 1860. Additional evidence may be gleaned from a 1944 Auction in which were sold a lot of autographed letters to Prof. James C. Booth, Assayer of the U. S. Mint at Philadelphia. Among these letters dated 1853-1857 were a number by John Hewston, Jr., and others interested in gold mining.
Whether struck, as Mr. Elder felt, in 1852-1854 period, or in 1859-60, the presence of the Revenue Stamp made it acceptable for U. S. Customs duties. This splendid specimen has an official character beyond all question and worthy of a most dignified position in a numismatist's cabinet.
This unique coin is certainly as rare and valuable as any in the Pioneer Gold series and should bring well over the $10,000.00 mark.

BALDWIN & COMPANY

1847. 1851 Ten D. "Baldwin & Co." on headband of Liberty over date. Rev: Eagle over denomination, S. M.V., California Gold. Fine. Die break at fourth star on left. PANAMA PACIFIC SET

The set is accompanied by five official certificates, one for each coin. It is officially designated as Set No. 81. This set was purchased by Dr. Allenberger direct from the Commission in 1915-16. It was sold in the sale of his coins by Mr. B. Max Mehl in 1948, Lot No. 2461. This famous cataloguer unhesitatingly states that this is as perfect and beautiful a set as exists. This outstanding set is accompanied by the documents mentioned, along with other letters of certification. We have recently sold two sets, not in the copper frame nor certified, for $3,750.00 each. This set should certainly exceed that figure.

VERY RARE CURRENCY

Legal Tender

1899. $50.00 (F-151) Series of 1869. Head of Henry Clay. Female holding statue of Mercury, basket of fruit below. Large red seal. Very Fine. If not for being slightly soiled, this could be classed higher. Extremely rare as only twenty-four Notes are reported outstanding on U. S. Treasury Books. It is doubtful if half of these still exist. Certainly as rare as the $50.00 Coin Note which we recently noticed priced at $3,750.00.

1900. $500.00 (F-185d) Series 1878. Head of Major General Mansfield (killed at Battle of Antietam). Female standing by cannon. Small red seal, signatures Gilfillan & Allison. Very Fine even though a small tear at top has been very cleverly repaired. Of the greatest rarity, only one other specimen known. This lot is valued and claimed insured for $7,500.00.

Compound Interest Notes

1901. $10.00 (F-190) Redemption value $11.94. Bust of Salmon P. Chase, vignette of female, eagle on flag. Signatures Chittenden and Spinner. Overprinted Compound Interest Treasury Note 10. Very Fine plus, valued at $500.00.

1902. $20.00 (F-191) Redemption value $23.88. Head of Lincoln at right, female holding flag, cannon, bottom center. Signatures Colby and Spinner. Overprinted Compound Interest Treasury Note 20. Redemption scale on reverse. Choice Very Fine and greatly under-rated. Should bring at least $750.00.

Federal Reserve Note

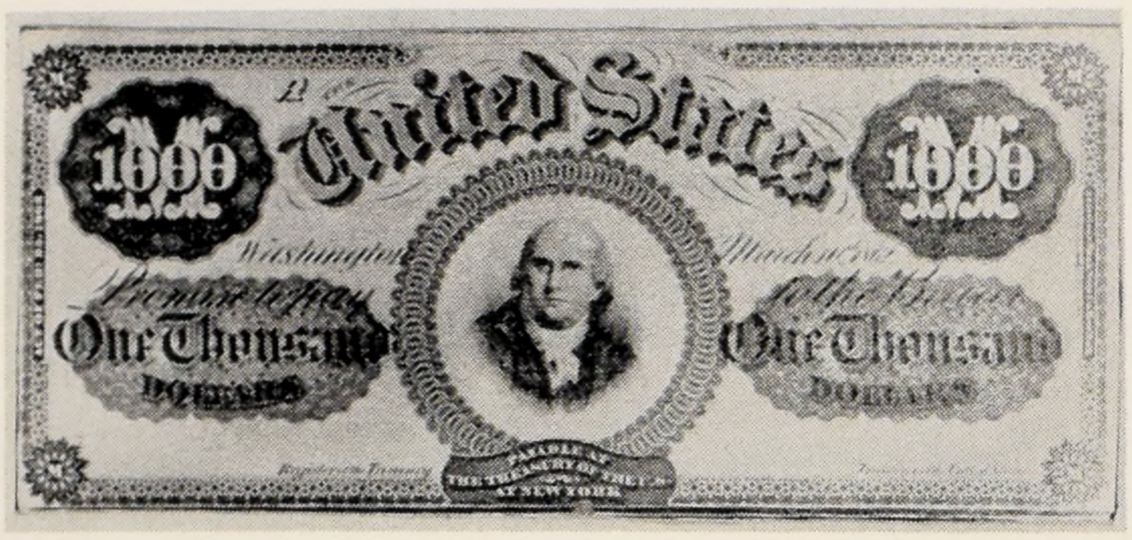
Lot No.

1903. $500.00 New York, series 1918 (F-1132). Head of John Marshall. Rev: De Soto discovering the Mississippi. Choice Unc. rare, should bring $1,000.00 or more.

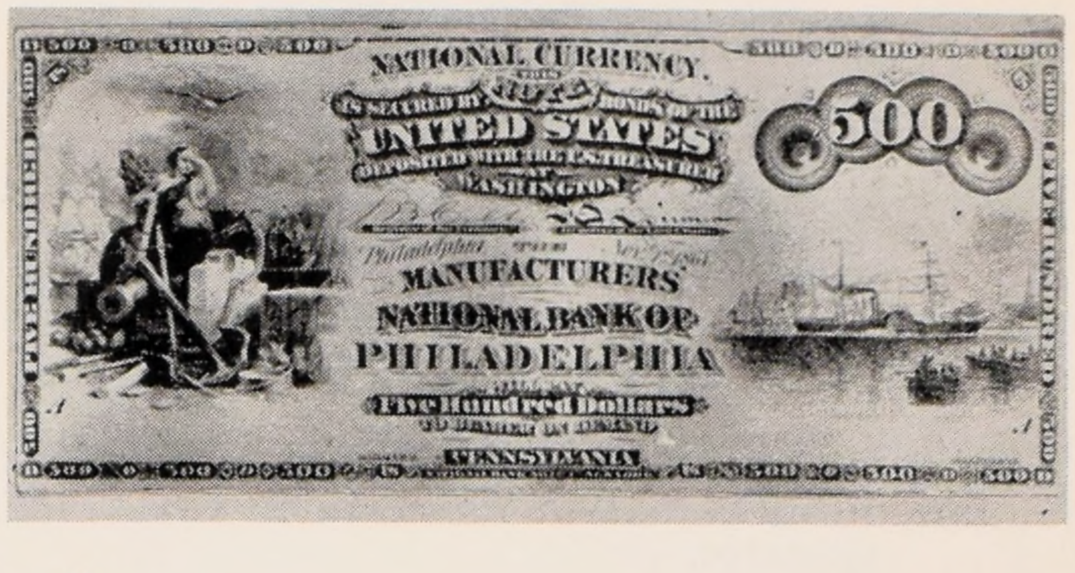
Two-Denominational Note

1904. $10.00 Obverse $20.00 Reverse. National Bank Note 1902-1908 Series. The National Bank of Lumberton, North Carolina, Signatures Parker and Burke. Unc. and extremely rare. Valued at $1,500.00. I have seen other two-denominational Notes priced considerably higher.

Miniature Notes



1905. Legal Tender Series 1862, $1.00 to $1,000.00. These are exact duplicates of regular notes but one fourth the size. They were put out as counterfeit detectors for banks. This was evidently a specimen set as when placed in sequence and turned over, it shows permission to use the photographs and is signed by the Secretary of the Treasury, Dec. 1st, 1866. Like new. A rare and interesting set, 9 pcs.



Lot No.

1906. First Charter Notes, Series 1865, $1.00 to $1,000.00. Same size and issued for same reason as preceding lot. When in sequence and turned over, there is a note from Secretary of Treasury congratulating Mr. Naramore, the printer, on his admirable work. Like new, set of 9 pcs.

FRACTIONAL CURRENCY SHIELDS

Rare Pink Shield

1907. Fractional Shield. The very rare variety mounted on Pink Shield, 39 different specimens mounted on Shield. These were sold to banks in order to detect counterfeits. This is as clean and perfect as I have ever seen. It has been re-mounted and framed. This is the first Pink Shield I have handled so it is difficult to estimate. While in New York at the Metropolitan Convention, I called on a dealer who had one for sale, not as nice and priced at $1,250.00. This was supposed to be a special price to another dealer.

1908. Fractional Shield with the usual Gray Shield, otherwise same as above. Very clean, re-mounted and framed. A beautiful showpiece, worth $300.00.
